BACKGROUND (Includes description, background, and justification)	A transfer of funds from one appropriation to another means removing monies from one category such as “supplies” and moving it to another such as “contractual services”. Due to various circumstances and reasons sometimes throughout the year budget appropriations in their respective funds need to be transferred to avoid drawing a negative balance. When this occurs, the respective department provides a written and signed transfer request to the Controller's Office. All transfers require Department Head approval before submission to the Controller's Office, whether or not they are between categories (ex. 200's to 300's) in the same department or transfers between departments. Transfers between departments also require City Council approval in addition to Department Head approval. As such, all transfers requiring City Council approval are prepared by the Controller's Office and submitted to the City Council for approval. Upon approval they are processed by the Controller's Office. Money cannot be transferred between funds. Attached is a resolution and its accompanying Exhibit A ("Transfers") requesting authorization for the City Controller to transfer all funds as outlined in the exhibit.
BUDGETING AND FINANCIAL IMPACT (Includes project costs and funding sources)	Budgeted $:		N/A
	Expenditure $:		N/A
	Source of Funds:		See Exhibit A
	Additional Appropriation #:		N/A
	Narrative:		This action does not require an expenditure or receive a revenue, rather it is transferring funds within various City funds. See Exhibit A for all transfers and transfer detail.
OPTIONS (Include Deny Approval Option)	1.	Approve this resolution and authorize the City Controller to make the transfers
	2.	Deny this resolution and request
	3.	Approve selected transfer requests
	4.	Provide alternate direction
PROJECT TIMELINE	All approved transfers will be transferred respectively immediately following approval.
STAFF RECOMMENDATION (Board reserves the right to accept or deny recommendations)	Staff recommends that the City Council approve this resolution authorizing the City Controller to transfer all funds as outlined in Exhibit A and fully oversee this process and request.

BACKGROUND (Includes description, background, and justification)	An additional appropriation is a request from staff to move allocated funding that exists in an account or fund that has not been approved for spending, to be allocated for spending. In other words, if an account or fund has a certain amount of money in it and the fiscal body has only authorized a certain percentage or amount that can be spent; then the fiscal body must authorize funds out of the cash balance (the portion of funding that exists between the authorized amount and the total amount in the fund) before such can be used. The City of Fishers Board of Public Works approved a resolution on February 12, 2023 regarding an Agreement for the Design and Transfer of a Wastewater Line. This is an overall project to provide sanitary sewer service around the Metropolitan Airport. Initial funding for this project was provided by the 2021 Sewage Works Bond. Those funds have all been utilized and this additional appropriation is needed to complete the project.
BUDGETING AND FINANCIAL IMPACT (Includes project costs and funding sources)	Budgeted $:	N/A
	Expenditure $:	Sewer Availability Funds $1,650,000
	Source of Funds:	Cash Balance
	Additional Appropriation #:	60804010 44920
	Narrative:	This item is an action of requesting that $1,650,000 be moved from the cash balance (unappropriated funding) into the spending category (appropriated funding).

What's up, doc?

Commentary by Dick Wolfsie

I've had the same barber for 35 years, the same housekeeper for almost 40, and our CPA retired after 40 years, probably because she was sick of looking at my shoebox filled with receipts. Oh, and I have had the same wife for 44 years. She has no plans to retire ... I don't think.

After about 25 years, my primary care physician is calling it quits. Many local M.D.s went to Dr. Kevin Coss for their personal health needs. Kevin was known as the doctor's doctor.

You never hear that expression about other professions. I asked my plumber (who's been our plumber for 25 years) to tell me who in town is known as the "plumber's plumber."

"Most plumbers fix their own plumbing," he told me. "Unless they have a reputation for not showing up on time, then they call someone else."

Don't worry, I don't know what that means, either.

When we first arrived in Indy, my physician was Dr. Bob Palmer. He retired years ago and, sadly, has since passed away. Bob was a diminutive guy, and when he wrote me an email, he signed it, "Your dwarf internist." But don't sell him short – he was not only a superb practitioner but a World War II bomber pilot with more than 70 missions. His office was decorated with photos of him in uniform standing by his plane. I preferred this décor to my urologist's office, which is furnished with pictures of ... well, let's just leave it at that.

Dr. Bob once examined me, and the nurse came in with a worried look.

"Dr. Palmer needs to see you right away," she said.

Shaking, I went back to his office. "You have Wisenheimer's disease," he told me.

I asked what that was.

"While examining you, I saw that you have on a black sock and blue sock. That's Wisenheimer's disease."

I told him I had another pair of socks just like it at home.

Bob always came out to the waiting room and personally summoned the next person into his office. This was a small commitment in time, but it made a huge impression on the patient.

But now back to Dr. Coss. Like Dr. Palmer, he put me at ease and spent a solid hour with me at my annual checkup. He always sat down with me during our conversations. So, I never felt rushed in the examination. Even during what I will call the yearlong hypochondriacal period of my life, he was patient and understanding.

Thanks, Kevin Coss. I hope retirement treats you well. Just like you treated all your patients.

What's the use in crying?

Commentary by Terry Anker

Although the very earliest forms of expression were often cave paintings of heroic deeds against formidable opponents, animal or otherwise, art eventually matured into other forms – romantic expressions, then deities, then edifices and so on. We retell the story of our personal state, often the universal human condition, through art in all its forms – music, painting, sculpture, theater, literature, song, dance – the list goes on.

The subjects haven't found much variability in these many years. We brag of our conquests and prowess. We express our fears and loathing. And we emote. Wow, do we emote. French poet Raymond Queneau entitled his magnum opus "100,000,000,000,000 Poems," but it is unlikely that he managed to say it all. Anger, pain, love, loss and need all find outlets in our expression. The notion of human crying appears so often in song lyrics that even the vaunted artificial intelligence will not yet provide a specific answer, instead asserting it blithely to be "a common theme" in music. No doubt.

What is the use of all the time we spend crying instead of time doing? Were we to dedicate our energy and emotion to action, would the foundation for sadness dry up? Even the great Nat King Cole observed that we'd be better off to "smile" and rhetorically queries, "What's the use of crying?" Still, there is much evidence that our sobbing is good for us, that grief has an important role in healing.

In 1981, the rock band Journey found a hit among all of those seeking revenge in "Who's Crying Now." Is there a different act that could serve us in our need to feel better? Fury? Reason? Resignation? Evolution? Even if tears are the best path, is there a point too far? Is there a point of self-indulgence?

One is the happiest number

Commentary by Danielle Wilson

Friends, happy days are here again! Or at least for a week. My husband Doo is away on a boys trip, leaving me and my lonesome behind. Woohoo! Actually, the dog is here, too, but you get my point. Six glorious nights of single-lady living!

I'll return each evening to a beautiful bed because I will have made it that morning. The kitchen sink will be immaculate because the dishes will be where they belong – in the dishwasher. I will not be awoken intermittently from 11 p.m. to 4 a.m. by snoring, grunting, breathing or "Is he experiencing a medical event?" And randomly discarded boxers won't be a topic of mid-level debate, nor will his definitely on-purpose turning on of all the overhead lights (those two 40-watt-bulb lamps are plenty!).

They say a man's home is his castle – until he leaves, and the queen takes over! And this queen don't mess around with her solo reign. I made a special Meijer trip to stock the fridge with my favorite frozen dinners, bakery goods and deli delights and purposefully did not schedule any plans outside of work. Me Time is free time, and if I decide to watch an entire season of "House Hunters International" while savoring two of Amy's Cheese Enchiladas and a chocolate bundt, then sue me. Oh, wait, you can't! And neither can Doo!

Will I be glad when he returns? Probably. I do still kinda like him. But am I thrilled to have the TV remote to myself and a relatively smelly smell-free bathroom? Abso-fudgin-lutely. Happy days are here again, temporarily at least, and I intend to enjoy them fully! Peace out.

Fishers fall-prevention grants help seniors stay safe

news@currentinfishers.com

Emergency responses in Fishers that stem from accidental falls have nearly doubled since 2019, and City of Fishers departments have teamed up to try and reduce those numbers.

ASSISTANCE

According to an announcement from the city, the Fishers Department of Fire and Emergency Services and the Fishers Health Department collaborated to receive a $30,000 Mobile Integrated Health grant from the Indiana Department of Homeland Security for the new Fishers Fall Prevention Program.

That program, which launched in November, aims to help residents age safely at home. Residents 65 and older can apply for free support, which includes home visits, fall prevention education, assistance with in-home modifications and referrals to community partners as needed.

"Falls in the home are the leading cause of injury in Fishers," Division Chief Joe Harding from the Fishers Department of Fire and Emergency Services' EMS Division stated. "For several years, our first responders have recognized that these are often preventable events, but we lacked resources to assist the individual. We quickly identified that there was a lack of funding for low- or fixed-income residents to purchase or install mobility devices on their own. These grant dollars will help us close the gap and help to keep our residents safe in their own homes."

The departments will work with organizations such as the Shepherd Center of Hamilton County and Good Samaritan Network of Hamilton County to identify residents in need of financial support.

What's up, doc?

Commentary by Dick Wolfsie

I've had the same barber for 35 years, the same housekeeper for almost 40, and our CPA retired after 40 years, probably because she was sick of looking at my shoebox filled with receipts. Oh, and I have had the same wife for 44 years. She has no plans to retire ... I don't think.

After about 25 years, my primary care physician is calling it quits. Many local M.D.s went to Dr. Kevin Coss for their personal health needs. Kevin was known as the doctor's doctor.

You never hear that expression about other professions. I asked my plumber (who's been our plumber for 25 years) to tell me who in town is known as the "plumber's plumber."

"Most plumbers fix their own plumbing," he told me. "Unless they have a reputation for not showing up on time, then they call someone else."

Don't worry, I don't know what that means, either.

When we first arrived in Indy, my physician was Dr. Bob Palmer. He retired years ago and, sadly, has since passed away. Bob was a diminutive guy, and when he wrote me an email, he signed it, "Your dwarf internist." But don't sell him short – he was not only a superb practitioner but a World War II bomber pilot with more than 70 missions. His office was decorated with photos of him in uniform standing by his plane. I preferred this décor to my urologist's office, which is furnished with pictures of ... well, let's just leave it at that.

Dr. Bob once examined me, and the nurse came in with a worried look.

"Dr. Palmer needs to see you right away," she said.

Shaking, I went back to his office. "You have Wisenheimer's disease," he told me.

I asked what that was.

"While examining you, I saw that you have on a black sock and blue sock. That's Wisenheimer's disease."

I told him I had another pair of socks just like it at home.

Bob always came out to the waiting room and personally summoned the next person into his office. This was a small commitment in time, but it made a huge impression on the patient.

But now back to Dr. Coss. Like Dr. Palmer, he put me at ease and spent a solid hour with me at my annual checkup. He always sat down with me during our conversations. So, I never felt rushed in the examination. Even during what I will call the yearlong hypochondriacal period of my life, he was patient and understanding.

Thanks, Kevin Coss. I hope retirement treats you well. Just like you treated all your patients.

What's the use in crying?

Commentary by Terry Anker

Although the very earliest forms of expression were often cave paintings of heroic deeds against formidable opponents, animal or otherwise, art eventually matured into other forms – romantic expressions, then deities, then edifices and so on. We retell the story of our personal state, often the universal human condition, through art in all its forms – music, painting, sculpture, theater, literature, song, dance – the list goes on.

The subjects haven't found much variability in these many years. We brag of our conquests and prowess. We express our fears and loathing. And we emote. Wow, do we emote. French poet Raymond Queneau entitled his magnum opus "100,000,000,000,000 Poems," but it is unlikely that he managed to say it all. Anger, pain, love, loss and need all find outlets in our expression. The notion of human crying appears so often in song lyrics that even the vaunted artificial intelligence will not yet provide a specific answer, instead asserting it blithely to be "a common theme" in music. No doubt.

What is the use of all the time we spend crying instead of time doing? Were we to dedicate our energy and emotion to action, would the foundation for sadness dry up? Even the great Nat King Cole observed that we'd be better off to "smile" and rhetorically queries, "What's the use of crying?" Still, there is much evidence that our sobbing is good for us, that grief has an important role in healing.

In 1981, the rock band Journey found a hit among all of those seeking revenge in "Who's Crying Now." Is there a different act that could serve us in our need to feel better? Fury? Reason? Resignation? Evolution? Even if tears are the best path, is there a point too far? Is there a point of self-indulgence?

One is the happiest number

Commentary by Danielle Wilson

Friends, happy days are here again! Or at least for a week. My husband Doo is away on a boys trip, leaving me and my lonesome behind. Woohoo! Actually, the dog is here, too, but you get my point. Six glorious nights of single-lady living!

I'll return each evening to a beautiful bed because I will have made it that morning. The kitchen sink will be immaculate because the dishes will be where they belong – in the dishwasher. I will not be awoken intermittently from 11 p.m. to 4 a.m. by snoring, grunting, breathing or "Is he experiencing a medical event?" And randomly discarded boxers won't be a topic of mid-level debate, nor will his definitely on-purpose turning on of all the overhead lights (those two 40-watt-bulb lamps are plenty!).

They say a man's home is his castle – until he leaves, and the queen takes over! And this queen don't mess around with her solo reign. I made a special Meijer trip to stock the fridge with my favorite frozen dinners, bakery goods and deli delights and purposefully did not schedule any plans outside of work. Me Time is free time, and if I decide to watch an entire season of "House Hunters International" while savoring two of Amy's Cheese Enchiladas and a chocolate bundt, then sue me. Oh, wait, you can't! And neither can Doo!

Will I be glad when he returns? Probably. I do still kinda like him. But am I thrilled to have the TV remote to myself and a relatively smelly smell-free bathroom? Abso-fudgin-lutely. Happy days are here again, temporarily at least, and I intend to enjoy them fully! Peace out.

Fishers fall-prevention grants help seniors stay safe

news@currentinfishers.com

Emergency responses in Fishers that stem from accidental falls have nearly doubled since 2019, and City of Fishers departments have teamed up to try and reduce those numbers.

ASSISTANCE

According to an announcement from the city, the Fishers Department of Fire and Emergency Services and the Fishers Health Department collaborated to receive a $30,000 Mobile Integrated Health grant from the Indiana Department of Homeland Security for the new Fishers Fall Prevention Program.

That program, which launched in November, aims to help residents age safely at home. Residents 65 and older can apply for free support, which includes home visits, fall prevention education, assistance with in-home modifications and referrals to community partners as needed.

"Falls in the home are the leading cause of injury in Fishers," Division Chief Joe Harding from the Fishers Department of Fire and Emergency Services' EMS Division stated. "For several years, our first responders have recognized that these are often preventable events, but we lacked resources to assist the individual. We quickly identified that there was a lack of funding for low- or fixed-income residents to purchase or install mobility devices on their own. These grant dollars will help us close the gap and help to keep our residents safe in their own homes."

The departments will work with organizations such as the Shepherd Center of Hamilton County and Good Samaritan Network of Hamilton County to identify residents in need of financial support.

BACKGROUND (Includes description, background, and justification)	An additional appropriation is a request from staff to move allocated funding that exists in an account or fund that has not been approved for spending, to be allocated for spending. In other words, if an account or fund has a certain amount of money in it and the fiscal body has only authorized a certain percentage or amount that can be spent; then the fiscal body must authorize funds out of the cash balance (the portion of funding that exists between the authorized amount and the total amount in the fund) before such can be used. During the 2024 municipal budget process, the City adopted a budget for the Municipal Health Fund based upon the revenue that was to be distributed by the State of Indiana.
